SUPERINTENDENT'S PRESS RELEASE

Henry V. Wagner Jr., Ed.D., Superintendent

DATE: March 13, 2017

“Date with Our Delegate”

-Submitted by Terrell Sample, 21st CCLC Coordinator-

On Friday, March 10th S.T.E.A.M. essay contest winners enjoyed their special date with Delegate Sheree Sample- Hughes, Legislative District 37-A, at the Maryland General Assembly in the House of Delegates. These S.T.E.A.M. students had the opportunity to share their essays, take a tour, observe a session in the Gallery and put what they learned into practice. During their visit to the Gallery, they were surprised to learn that they were in the company of retired NFL Baltimore Raven, Mr. Ray Lewis who was there giving testimony in support of a bill concerning gun control. This was certainly a treat as they learned more about government and the importance of how to express their voice throughout the process.

Sandy Hill Elementary Steamers were also proud of their research efforts conducted during February for Black History Month and for the month of March as we celebrate National Women’s History Month. Through their research, they learned that Delegate Sample-Hughes is the first African-American female to hold this position representing her district. Special thank you to the S.T.E.A.M. staff whom accompanied myself and our students: Ms. Precious Hampton, Ms. Cynthia Collins, Mrs. Robin Rolfe, Mrs. Megan Day. Also to our parents: Ms. Amber Murray, and Ms. Kim Jefferson.
